

Customer Services Coordinator

Truro Foodbank

Truro Foodbank is offering an exciting and challenging job opportunity to manage the delivery of services to Foodbank customers, coordinating a team of volunteers as they seek to alleviate hunger and provide compassionate and practical help to local people in crisis. We provided emergency food parcels to over 3,500 people last year, representing over 65 tonnes of food donated by local people.

We seek a Customer Services Coordinator with excellent communication and leadership skills to develop and manage all tasks within the distribution centres providing a high level of service for customers through the volunteer team.

16 core hours per week plus overtime. £11 per hour.

For further details please contact trurofoodbanksecretary@gmail.com or call 07721 711669

Closing date: 20th December 2021

Interviews planned for w/c 3rd January 2022

NOTES:

References will be taken up prior to interview. We reserve the right to extend the deadline depending on the number and quality of applications

Truro Foodbank is a charity founded on Christian principles. It is part of the network of Trussell Trust foodbanks and works closely with local churches.

We work to support those in food crisis in the Truro area, of any faith or no faith, as well as being proud to have a wide range of volunteers working with us from across Truro's diverse communities.

Registered charity number 1176281