

From: chiefexecutive@cornwallfoundation.com <UKCF.Cornwall.Community.Foundation@dotdigital-email.com>
Sent: 25 August 2022 18:02
To: ctcmisioner@gmail.com
Subject: News from Cornwall - Your monthly update from CCF

The Foundation welcomes Kim Conchie as new Chair

We are delighted to announce the appointment of Kim Conchie DL FRSA as the new Chair of the Foundation. Kim takes over the role of Chair from Jane Hartley DL who steps down after five incredibly busy and successful years. We thank Jane for her outstanding work, leading the Foundation through a challenging couple of years due to the Covid-19 pandemic and helping the Foundation to grow into what it is today. Read more.

CCF enjoys Royal Garden Party at Boconnoc Estate

We were honoured to be invited to attend the Garden Party at Boconnoc Estate in Lostwithiel to celebrate Her Majesty The Queen's Platinum Jubilee and the 70th Anniversary of HRH The Prince of Wales becoming The Duke of Cornwall. It was lovely to see so many community groups that have been supported by the Foundation and recipients of the Young & Talented Cornwall Fund. Read more.

Cornish Lithium launches new Community Fund with CCF

Cornish Lithium, the innovative mineral exploration company headquartered in Penryn, has launched a Community Fund to support the work of community groups making a positive difference in the Gwennap, Chacewater, St Day, Carharrack and China Clay areas. Read more.

"Geddon me bewty," read Donna's reason why!

Donna Wheadon plays a pivotal role at CCF. After finishing University, Donna moved back to home to North Cornwall and started her career at the Foundation in 2008 as a Grants Administrator, later becoming Grants Officer. She tells us her reasons for loving Cornwall and why she enjoys working for the Foundation. Read more.

Join us for Seeing is Believing at The Hall, Treverbyn

We would be delighted if you could join us on Tuesday 13th September at 4.30 pm, meeting at The Hall, Treverbyn to see the great support they provide for their community. Then following on to Wheal Martyn Clay Works Museum for cream tea and cake and to hear from St Austell Community Kitchen. Please click here for a link to the invitation and programme.

Truro-based financial planners joins Business Club

We are delighted to welcome Truro-based trusted financial planners Watson French to the CCF Business Club. Watson French joins other businesses to support the Business Club's grant-making to community groups making a positive difference to people's lives across Cornwall and the Isles of Scilly. Read more.

HOW YOUR DONATIONS HELP

Young & Talented Cornwall helps send ballet dancer Jamie to Munich

Jamie Constance received £1,300 from Young & Talented Cornwall in March. Since then, he has seen his ballet career take off including performing in Geneva at the Festival of International Jeunes Ballets and landing a two-year post in Munich at Bayerisches Junior Ballet company. Congratulations Jamie! Read more.

The "Being Me" Project supports children struggling with the negative impacts of social media

A grant of £4,464 from the Young Minds First fund supported TRELIA to progress well with their "Being Me" emotional wellbeing project for young people in Cornwall. The aim of the project was to reduce the negative impacts of body image on children and young people. Read more.

Thank you to our donors and supporters who make it possible for us to help Cornish communities. Please follow this link for more information about how you can help. For stories about the difference the Foundation makes for communities and people in Cornwall, click here.

Positive change for one and all

Privacy notice

Unsubscribe

Cornwall Community Foundation
Suite 1, Sheers Barton, Lawhitton, Launceston, Cornwall, PL15 9NJ
Charity number 1099977